

Julianna Johnson

1065 C SW 9th St. ♦ Gainesville, FL 32601 ♦ 407-538-3059 ♦ jjohnson363@ufl.edu

EDUCATION

Bachelors of Arts in Sociology

May 2020

Bachelors of Science in Family, Youth and Community Sciences

University of Florida, Gainesville, Florida

Minor: Nonprofit Organizational Leadership

Associate of Arts

August 2016

Valencia Community College, Orlando, Florida

WORK EXPERIENCE

Volunteer Program Coordinator, Gainesville Housing Authority

January 2017 - Present

Gainesville, Florida

- Developed after-school program to be utilized at community center for about 20 students
- Created partnerships and coordinated services with local community organizations
- Implemented weekly program plans and techniques focused on education, leadership, and skill building
- Measured success of participating students to evaluate program effectiveness

Community Partnerships Coordinator, United Way

January - July 2019

Gainesville, Florida

- Led the North Central Florida Grade Level Reading Campaign that would result in greater student success
- Collaborated with more than 15 organizations that would support the Grade Level Reading Campaign
- Researched and analyzed data on Alachua County's education system and outcomes
- Organized Student United Way organization to positively impact the areas on education, health, and income

Tutor, University of Florida

January - December 2018

Gainesville, Florida

- Guided students through homework assignments to ensure their understanding of course concepts
- Assisted students with improving reading and math skills in preparation for standardized tests
- Monitored progress of students throughout the school year

Camp Counselor, Camp Lokanda

June - August 2017

Glen Spey, New York

- Participated with 9 children on a daily basis in activities such as sports, arts and crafts, and board games to build a relationship of trust
- Identified and responded to camper behavioral issues and reported them to camp leadership
- Escorted children to and from daily activities to ensure safety and punctuality
- Counseled children displaying disorderly behavior on the importance of respect, kindness, and inclusivity

Paraprofessional, Alachua County Public Schools

January - April 2017

Gainesville, Florida

- Assisted students who had learning disabilities or behavioral issues to keep them focused
- Assisted students with schoolwork and redirected them when they lost focus.
- Escorted students to their classrooms.

INVOLVEMENT

Vice President, Tyner Scholarship House

August 2019 – Present

Participant, Mental Health First Aid Training

March 2019

Participant, UF in India NGOs & Development study abroad program

June - July 2018

Participant, LeadUF

April 1, 2017

Mentor, SMILE Mentoring

September - December 2016