

Direct Hiring / Recruiting

Inclusion connects world-class employers with experienced and diverse candidates who are ready to make a big impact.

The competition for diverse talent is more fierce than ever

Companies are looking to identify and attract individuals who, not only possess the right experience and management skills for a leadership position, but also people who reflect the communities (local or global) which the organization serves.

Successful companies know that they must appeal to an ever increasing diverse customer base with appropriate products and services.

KEY BENEFITS

Pipeline of diverse, experienced talent

Work with a company focused on a diverse future of work.

How it works

Work with our team to scope a role or post a permanent opportunity on our marketplace.

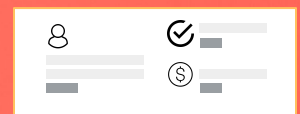

Within days you'll receive recommendations for vetted, candidates who match your opportunity.

Review candidates and request interviews and follow your normal hiring process from there.

Hire the candidate you like the best and we bill you for our standard placement fee based on the salary or contract amount.
